UCLA: THE BEST IN COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

UCLA, which possesses the nation's finest all-around athletic program, won five NCAA championships during the 1981-82 academic year, including titles in men's swimming, volleyball and tennis, and women's softball and track and field. In addition, the Bruins finished second nationally in men's gymnastics and women's tennis and volleyball. In all, UCLA capped its greatest athletic season by finishing sixth or better nationally in 12 different sports.

UCLA now owns 42 NCAA men's titles and two women's championships for a combined total of 44. In the last 13 years, UCLA has captured 29 national championships (men's and women's), far and away the highest total in the nation.

Last year marked the sixth time in the last 13 years that UCLA won at least three men's titles in a single year. Also, UCLA is the only school to win four men's titles in a single year more than once, accomplishing that feat in 1969-70 (basketball, tennis, volleyball and water polo), 1970-71 (basketball, tennis, volleyball and outdoor track) and 1971-72 (basketball, volleyball, outdoor track and water polo).

No school has dominated college tennis, basketball or volleyball like UCLA. The Bruin netters have earned 14 NCAA championships since 1950 and head coach Glenn Bassett has won six of them. In 1982 the Blue & Gold won its last 24 matches enroute to an excellent 30-3 record and a 5-1 victory over Pepperdine for its second national championship in the last four years.

UCLA basketball has become synonymous with NCAA titles in the last two decades. The Bruins have won 10 NCAA championships in a 19-year span and have produced NBA superstars such as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Jamaal Wilkes of the World Champion Los Angeles Lakers as well as Marques Johnson and David Greenwood, to name a few.

In volleyball, the Bruins, under the guidance of coach Al Scates, have participated in the NCAA tournament 12 of the 13 years it has been held, and have won nine NCAA championships, including two straight and three of the last four.

UCLA also has one of the most respected track and field programs in the country. Last year the Bruins won the Pac-10 Championship and placed fifth in the NCAA meet. The Bruins own five NCAA crowns in this sport and have finished in the top five nationally 15 times in the last 18 years.

In the water sports, the Bruins have won four NCAA championships, earning their first swimming title last March and water polo crowns in 1969-71-72.

In women's athletics, the Bruins own 11 national championships, including nine AIAW crowns and two NCAA titles. In each of the last five years, the women's program has won the award for all-around excellence sponsored by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook.

THE 1982 BRUINS

RETURNEES — The nucleus for the 1982 UCLA team will come from 49 lettermen, 45 of whom helped the Bruins gain their third post-season bowl bid in Terry Donahue's six years as head coach. Broken down by position, the returnees include: Offense — 3 split ends, 3 flankers, 2 tight ends, 6 tackles, 4 guards, 3 centers, 4 quarterbacks, 6 tailbacks and 4 fullbacks. Defense — 5 tackles, 3 nose guards, 7 outside linebackers, 6 inside linebackers, 7 cornerbacks and 5 safeties. Among those returnees who started games in 1981 are: Offense — SE Cormac Carney (11), LG Blake Wingle (3), LG Steve Williams (2), C Dan Dufour (5), RG Chris Yelich (5), RG Duval Love (1), RT Don Mahlstedt (10), TE Harper Howell (2), QB Tom Ramsey (12), TB Kevin Nelson (10), TB Danny Andrews (1), TB Terry Morehead (1), FB Frank Bruno (9), FB Frank Cephous (3), FL Jojo Townsell (10). Defense — LT Irv Eatman (12), NG Karl Morgan (12), ILB Ron Butler (12), ILB Blanchard Montgomery (10), ILB Gene Mewborn (2), SS Tom Sullivan (12), FS Don Rogers (11), RCB Jimmy Turner (12), LCB Walter Lang (11). Among those returning after missing the 1981 season is LCB Lupe Sanchez, who started 8 times as a 1979 freshman and 11 games as a 1980 sophomore. He broke his left forearm prior to the 1981 campaign, started against Stanford and re-broke the arm in the first half, sidelining him for the remainder of the season. Spring practice position changes saw the offensive tackles flopping, ORG Steve Williams switching to LG and fullback Frank Cephous spending measurable time at tailback. Defensively, Irv Eatman moved from right to left tackle; Jimmy Turner returned to right corner after spending the '81 campaign at left corner following Sanchez' injury, and Walter Lang moved from right corner to left corner. Leading the returnees in honors won are Academic All-American and first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference selectee Cormac Carney and first-team All-Coast choice Irv Eatman. Tom Sullivan was a second-team all-conference pick while Tom Ramsey, Kevin Nelson, Karl Morgan and Don Rogers were honorable mention All-Americans and Jimmy Turner a Pac-10 mention.

LOSSES — 16 lettermen: Offense — 1 split end, 2 tight ends, 2 flankers, 2 tackles, 1 guard and 1 center. Defense — 2 tackles, 3 outside linebackers. Special teams — 1 center and 1 placekicker. Starters lost included: Offense — C Dave Otey (12), RT Luis Sharpe (12) and TE Tim Wrightman (12). Defense — LT Joe Gary (7), LT Martin Moss (6), OLB Ike Gordon (12), OLB Brad Plemmons (8) and OLB Glenn Windom (4). Special teams — PK Norm Johnson and C Russell Rowell. Most serious losses were Sharpe, the 16th player selected in the National Football League draft and fellow all-American Wrightman. Sharpe will be remembered as the finest offensive tackle in recent Bruin history, a starter for 32 games. Wrightman finished his UCLA career as the school's No. 2 all-time pass receiver with 73 catches covering 947 yards and netting 10 touchdowns. He was a third-round choice in the April pro draft. Johnson handled the Bruin kicking chores for only two seasons but became the school's most accurate field goal kicker with 24 successes in 34 attempts. (.706). He was 66 of 67 on conversion kicks and his 138 points place him in a tie for 10th place with John Sciarra on the Bruins' all-time scoring ladder.

PASSING GAME — Senior TOM RAMSEY (6-0, 188) enters his final collegiate season threatening to break nearly all of UCLA's passing standards. His 29 touchdown passes tie him with Dennis Dummit for the school record while his completions (232), attempts (415) and yardage total (3,182) all rank No. 3 on the career lists. Among the top 10 all-time UCLA passers, no one comes close to Ramsey's completion percentage of .559. Junior RICK NEUHEISEL (6-1½, 191) gained the edge over redshirt freshman DAVID NORRIE (6-4, 213) for the backup spot on the basis of the final spring scrimmage. Norrie had a slight edge after the first scrimmage. Neuheisel was Norm Johnson's holder on all extra points and field goals last season, but performed sparingly as a quarterback at the tail end of five games. Junior STEVE BONO (6-3½, 208) is expected to redshirt this season after spending all spring with the Bruin baseball team. In seniors CORMAC CARNEY (6-0, 196) and JOJO TOWNSELL (5-8, 180), the Bruins have one of the best receiving tandems in their history. Carney led UCLA in receptions for the second straight year as a junior and his two-year total of 62 catches ranks fourth on the all-time list. He also stands second in career receiving yardage (1,130) and ninth in career kickoff returns (23). Where Carney is the possession-type receiver with the perfectionist's moves, Townsell specializes in the swift post patterns. His 57-yard touchdown reception against Arizona State was UCLA's longest offensive play of the season. As a sophomore he returned a California kickoff 100 yards for a score. He currently stands No. 7 in career catches (59), No. 3 in receiving yards (1,055) and TD receptions (10) and No. 6 in kickoff returns (28). Backing up Carney are two young players of much promise, redshirt freshman JOE GASSER (5-11, 179) and sophomore MIKE YOUNG (6-1, 190). Gasser missed all of last season with shoulder problems while Young suffered the same misfortune the previous year. Gasser saw his first contact as a collegian in the spring while Young was performing with the Bruin baseball team. Townsell's backup is senior DOKIE WILLIAMS (5-11, 171), more noted for his long and triple jumping exploits with the UCLA track team. Dokie has averaged 17.3 yards on eight receptions over two previous seasons. He's also a proven threat on kickoff runbacks. Terry Donahue also likes the work of walk-on MIKE SHERRARD (6-1, 173), another redshirted freshman. Junior HARPER HOWELL (6-3½, 215) inherits Tim Wrightman's tight end post. He saw action as UCLA's zoom man (tight end in motion) last season and caught one pass for 20 yards. Also competing for the position is junior PAUL BERGMANN (6-2, 222). Howell is rated the better blocker, Bergmann the better receiver.

RUNNING GAME — KEVIN NELSON (5-11, 187), has bookended seasons of 481 and 883 yards in his first two years and has yet to play a full season. His freshman year was spent as backup to All-American Freeman McNeil. His sophomore campaign was punctuated with frequent injuries. In nine starts while healthy, Kevin has accounted for 100 or more yards six times. Donahue hopes to spell Nelson with an assortment of capable tailbacks this term. Leading the group is sophomore DANNY ANDREWS (5-11, 171), who netted 107 yards and 3 TDs on 22 carries as a freshman. Andrews possesses the best hands of all the running backs and Donahue expects to use him frequently in passing situations. Fellow soph BURNESS SCOTT (5-11, 176), scored three touchdowns and gained 117 yards on 29 carries, earning UCLA's offensive rookie of the year award. Also in the hunt are senior TERRY MOREHEAD (6-0, 205) and junior CHESTER GOYNES (5-10, 197). The fullback position is almost as deep with seniors FRANK BRUNO (5-11½, 230) and TOA SAIPALE (6-1½, 235), junior FRANK CEPHOUS (5-10½, 196) and sophomore BRYAN WILEY (6-1, 200). In two seasons as a starter, Bruno has gained 631 yards, scored five touchdowns and opened gaping holes for the likes of McNeil and Nelson. Saipale, a former starter himself, missed eight games a year ago with a broken foot. He's also a candidate for the vacant zoom position. Cephous is the most versatile of any UCLA running back and Donahue expects to use him at fullback and tailback in '82. With Bruno idled by arthroscopic knee surgery and Saipale still recovering from his broken foot, Frank got the starting call at fullback against Oregon, Washington and Arizona State — three very impressive Bruin victories in 1981. Wiley performed in much the capacity as Cephous during his freshman year, seeing only token action to pick up 23 yards on seven carries.

OFFENSIVE LINE — Outside of center, none of the Bruins' offensive line positions was wrapped up in the spring. Senior DAN DUFOUR (6-4, 259) alternated at center with departed Dave Otey for most of the 1981 season. Now it's his to keep. Redshirt sophomore MARK MANNON (6-4, 236) and junior STEVE WILLIAMS (6-2½, 242), who started twice at guard a year ago and is a valuable swingman, will battle to decide Dufour's successor. Donahue is comfortable with any one of three combinations at the guard and tackle positions. Starting candidates at guard are senior BLAKE WINGLE (6-2, 261), junior CHRIS YELICH (6-4, 250) and sophomore DUVAL LOVE (6-2½, 253). Wingle stared three games before breaking a foot at Iowa. He's the strongest of all the Bruins. Yelich, a former defensive tackle and linebacker, made five starts, three at right guard and two at left. Love, the highly acclaimed prepster, made his starting debut against USC. Redshirt freshman MIKE HARTMEIER (6-5, 249) will fill in when needed and can help at center as well. The tackle position doesn't have the same kind of experience, but there is more depth numberwise. Junior DON MAHLSTEDT (6-3½, 251) has 10 career starts, making him the senior member of this triumverate by a wide margin. Junior STEVE GEMZA (6-7½, 253) appears ready to make his presence felt and opened a few eyes with a 5.0 40-yard dash in the spring. Sophomore DAVE BARAN (6-5, 242) appeared in a few games as a freshman and made sufficient strides in the spring to challenge Mahlstedt and Gemza. Still a year away are junior SCOTT GORDON (6-4½, 245), sophomore KEVIN CRONIN (6-4, 237) and redshirt freshman DRAKE HODGE (6-5, 246) — all redshirted last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE — It was a minor move, but Terry Donahue hopes shifting senior IRV EATMAN (6-6¾, 264) from right to left tackle will have a major impact on UCLA's defensive performance this season. Most college football teams favor the right side. Having Irv on the left side means he'll be facing the opposing backs rather than chasing them down from behind. "We feel this will make Irv more of a factor than he was a year ago," says the head coach. Regardless of Eatman's performance as a junior, fellow senior KARL MORGAN (6-1, 255) was still UCLA's best defensive lineman. In three seasons, Morgan has been in on 143 tackles, 99 of them solo stops. He has 12 sacks and 15 other tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Eatman's statistics include 113 tackles, 83 solos, 13 sacks and 19 other tackles for losses. The other starting spot up front is slated to go to senior MIKE BARBEE (6-3, 242), a pass-rush specialist who has been plagued with injuries as a Bruin. The latest — and he hopes the last — required foot surgery prior to the 1981 season. Rehabilitation was slow and Mike played sparingly as a junior. Behind Eatman are redshirt freshman MARK WALEN (6-4¾, 237) and senior JEFF CHAFFIN (6-3, 238). Morgan's backups are junior KEN PAGE (6-3, 235) and senior MARK FERGUSON (6-2½, 226). Barbee will be the hardest pressed to hold his job. Redshirt sophomore DAVID RANDLE (6-3¾, 234) was in the thick of the fight until dislocating his left elbow midway through the spring. Randle was forced to sit out last season after transfering from SMU.

LINEBACKERS — Injuries have depleted the outside linebacker position the last few seasons at UCLA, severe enough to leave the Bruins with little depth or experience. Junior DOUG WEST (6-3½, 218) ran 4.85 as a strong safety prospect his freshman year. Now he's a 4.65 outside linebacker and a good one. Sophomore NEAL DELLOCONO (6-0, 200) was tried at five different positions during his first three days on the Westwood campus last fall. He chose outside linebacker, much to Donahue's surprise, and went on to become a big-play performer in a reserve role. Seniors REX GRAY (6-3½, 200) and EUGENE LEONI (5-11, 213) are the backups with redshirted frosh PAUL BOMBOLIS (6-4½, 215), TONY PHILLIPS (6-1, 205) and STEVE JARECKI (6-2½, 221) in the learning stages. The inside spots are considerably more experienced. While neither West nor Dellocono has ever started a game, senior BLANCHARD MONTGOMERY (6-3½, 230) and junior RON BUTLER (6-2, 230) are seasoned performers (23 combined starts) and junior GENE MEWBORN (6-2, 231) was in the opening lineup twice as a soph. Butler was in on 95 tackles a year ago, Montgomery 93. There is promise on the bench with junior LEE KNOWLES (6-1, 220), sophomore MIKE MAHAN (6-3, 226) and redshirt frosh TOMMY TAYLOR (6-½, 230), the latter shocking onlookers by running a 4.62 40 in the spring.

SECONDARY — This is the strength of the defense and possibly the entire team. Safety TOM SULLIVAN (5-10½, 188) returns for his fourth year as a starter while cornerbacks LUPE SANCHEZ (5-10, 186) and JIMMY TURNER (6-0, 187) are bidding for their third season as regulars. Cornerback WALTER LANG (5-9½, 175) and DON ROGERS (6-1, 203) were full-time starters in 1981. Then there's cornerback MIKE DURDEN (6-1½, 185). He's only started once, but he's probably the most gifted of all the Bruin defensive backs. Turner, a senior who replaced the injured Sanchez last season, returns to his familiar right cornerback. Seniors Durden and Long are the top reserves. Three other corners fighting for playing time are senior LYNDON CRAWFORD (6-½, 200), sophomore RON PITTS (5-11, 170) and junior HERB WELCH (5-11¾, 177), the latter a junior college transfer from Cerritos who ran 4.51 in the spring. Sullivan, a senior, and Rogers, a junior, are the heart of the secondary. Rogers led the team in tackles last season, 133 total and 90 solos. Sullivan tallied 109 stops as a junior, 65 unassisted, and also intercepted a Pac-10 leading six passes to run his career total to 11. He also topped the Bruins in punt returns with 19 for an 8-yard average. Sullivan's shadow is senior DAN LAUTER (6-1½, 179) while Rogers will be supported by senior LARRY THOMAS (5-10, 183) and junior DOUG DONATELLI (6-3, 190), a transfer from the Naval Academy.

KICKING GAME — Redshirt sophomore KEN POTTER (6-1, 202) inherits Norm Johnson's placekicking job. He has kicked just one extra point in competition, but boasts a strong leg. Accuracy is the main concern. Sophomore KEVIN BUENAFE (6-1, 200) averaged 42.3 yards on his 71 punts last season, the best by a Bruin in five seasons.

GENERAL OUTLOOK — "We geared our spring practice toward open competition at all positions," says head coach Terry Donahue. "It made us more competitive as a group. We'll go into the fall in the best shape physically that I can remember in many years. That's because we had no serious injuries in the spring, none that required surgery. And that's an all-time first for me as a head coach. I think we probably did more hitting this past spring than we've done in the past. We had some very good luck with injuries and I just hope it continues."

TERRY DONAHUE
(UCLA '67)
Head Football Coach

Success came early to Terry Donahue. And now, entering his seventh season as UCLA's head football coach, the 38-year-old former Bruin player ranks among the top mentors in the country.

His 45-21-3 record stamps him as one of the outstanding head coaches in UCLA history. No other Bruin football coach has won as many games in his first six seasons. Red Sanders posted 42 victories in the same span, Tommy Prothro 41.

Donahue's average of 7.5 wins per season leads all UCLA football coaches. Only Sanders (.733) and Prothro (.686) rank ahead of Terry (.674) in the category of winning percentage among coaches with three or more years of service.

He's led the Bruins to three bowl games — 1976 Liberty, 1978 Fiesta and 1981 Bluebonnet — and no other UCLA coach has as many post-season appearances. His two nine-win seasons have been equaled by only one other Westwood grid coach, the legendary Sanders.

He's 30-13-1 in Pacific-10 Conference games with four second-place finishes. Among coaches with three or more years of service at UCLA, only Sanders has a higher conference winning percentage than Terry's .693.

His debut was a memorable, 28-10 upset of Arizona State in Tempe to open the 1976 campaign. Later that year, Donahue directed a 30-21 triumph over Washington, UCLA's first win in Seattle since 1958.

The 1978 Bruins shut out Tennessee, 13-0, in Knoxville, making Terry the only UCLA coach to ever win a game in the state of Tennessee. Another win over Washington made Donahue the first coach since Sanders to beat the Huskies three straight seasons (1976-77-78). Last year's 31-0 rout of the Rose Bowl champions gave Donahue four wins against Don James, the most by any Pac-10 coach.

In 1980 the Bruins blanked Ohio State, 17-0, in Columbus enroute to six successive wins and then presented their head coach with his first triumph over cross-town rival USC.

Donahue has been involved with three post-season all-star games, as an assistant at the 1979 Hula Bowl and 1980 East-West Shrine Game and as the head coach for the West squad in the 1981 Shrine Game. Off the field, Terry Donahue is always in demand as a banquet speaker, and his pleasant, easy-going manner makes him an inviting interview for the media.

Another area in which Donahue has experienced remarkable success is that of recruiting. In his six full recruiting seasons, he has landed no less than 43 first-team high school All-Americans, including four who signed professional baseball contracts and never reached the Westwood campus. His 1977 class was judged best in the nation. In the past two years alone, 23 Donahue products have been drafted or signed as free agents by National Football League teams.

Only the third former Bruin player to become head coach at his alma mater (Bert LaBrucherie and George Dickerson were the others), Donahue took over in February, 1976, after Dick Vermeil was appointed head coach of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. His first season was a great one as he led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 mark and a Liberty Bowl berth and became the only Bruin coach ever to win nine games in his rookie year. UCLA played its first 10 games without a loss (9-0-1), rose to No. 2 in both wire service polls and finished the year ranked second nationally in scoring and rushing offense and fourth in total offense.

In 1977, despite numerous injuries to key personnel, the Bruins finished the year with a 7-4 record and just missed earning a spot in the Rose Bowl, despite a 2-3 start. Only a field goal with two seconds remaining in the season finale kept them from playing in Pasadena.

In 1978, the Bruins had another fine year, earning a Fiesta Bowl bid and fashioning an 8-3-1 record. Highlights included a season-opening victory over defending Rose Bowl champion Washington, a school-record 10 interceptions against California and a No. 12 ranking on the final UPI poll.

The Bruins faced one of the toughest schedules in school history in 1979 and suffered numerous crippling injuries as a result. Three losses by a total of 10 points midway through the season dropped the Bruins from the championship picture but they still rallied to win three of their final five games. Highlights of the year included a 31-21 victory over Purdue, a 28-27 come-from-behind win over California and a school rushing record for tailback Freeman McNeil.

In 1980 the Bruins rolled through their first six opponents enroute to a No. 2 national ranking. After losing the next two games, they closed out the campaign with three more victories and finished 13th in the final Associated Press poll. The 9-2 season was Donahue's best and the Bruins' finest in seven years.

Last season UCLA came within a couple of field goals of making a trip to the Rose Bowl. The Bruins fell three points shy of catching Stanford in a 26-23 defeat on the road and saw a last-second three-point attempt blocked in a 22-21 loss to USC. Early season injuries crippled the offensive line and nagging injuries plagued tailback Kevin Nelson all season. Nevertheless, the Bruins posted a 7-4-1 record and played in the Bluebonnet Bowl on New Year's Eve.

Donahue first became associated with UCLA in the mid-1960's when he played for Tommy Prothro's first two UCLA squads (1965-66). From his defensive tackle position he helped lead the Bruins to their memorable 14-12 upset win over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

He started 21 straight games during 1965 and 1966 while the Bruins compiled records of 8-2-1 and 9-1. Following graduation, Terry became one of the country's youngest major college assistants when, at the age of 23, he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff at the University of Kansas. At KU the young coach was in charge of the defensive line.

He stayed with Rodgers for four years at Kansas and then made the move back to his alma mater with Rodgers for the 1971 football season.

(1971-73) and two years under Vermeil (1974-75). Among the Bruins Donahue has coached as either head man or assistant are center-guard Randy Cross, quarterback Jeff Dankworth, tailback Freeman McNeil, safety Oscar Edwards, offensive tackle Luis Sharpe and tight end Tim Wrightman. — All first-team All-American players — and linebacker Jerry Robinson and safety Kenny Easley, the only three-time consensus All-Americans in UCLA history.

Terry is also the only man ever to play and coach in a Rose Bowl as a Bruin, having started in the 1966 game and coached in the 1976 contest. He would like to become the first man ever to participate as a player, assistant and head coach while a Bruin, hopefully this season.

Born in Los Angeles on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks where he starred as a linebacker. After playing freshman ball at San Jose State, Donahue returned home, attended a local junior college, but did not play football.

He then came to UCLA in 1964 as a "walk-on" football player. He didn't see action in his first season as a Bruin offensive lineman but with his move to the defensive line early in 1965, he earned a starting spot and held it for two years. At 6-0, 195 pounds he lacked size but more than made up for it with desire and hard work.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of three daughters, Nicole Denise, 10, Michele Lynn 7, and Jennifer Erin, 3. The Donahue family currently resides in Westlake Village.

NORM ANDERSEN

Assistant Coach

In the span of a few months, Norm Andersen went from part-time assistant coach to full-time status, from coaching a position he had played as a collegian to handling one that he'd only been remotely associated with heretofore. But obviously head coach Terry Donahue had the utmost confidence in Norm when he promoted him from tutoring wide receivers to running backs.

In few seasons have the Bruins been blessed with so much depth at the tailback and fullback positions, so Andersen will have plenty of talent at his disposal. If they don't improve in any other area, they will at least learn to catch the football.

There may have been no better part-time aide in the nation than Andersen. One need only check the improvement of UCLA's wide receivers to see the impact he made on the Bruin program. The job was a natural for Norm, still one of UCLA's top-ranking pass receivers.

Andersen served as a volunteer coach in 1978 and became a part-time assistant in 1979. That season Jojo Townsell averaged 22 yards per reception and caught six passes for touchdowns. In 1980 Cormac Carney pulled down 33 passes, the most by a Bruin in a decade. Last season Carney again led UCLA in pass receptions — 29 with 5 for TDs — while Townsell caught 26 with a pair of scores. And their backups, Ricky Coffman and Willie Curran, were both in pro training camps this summer.

Andersen, 29, was a three-year starter while at UCLA (1973-75) and led the team in receptions twice (1973-74). He climaxed his career by playing in the 1976 Rose Bowl and was the team's second-leading pass catcher during that 1975 campaign.

Norm pulled in a total of 61 passes for 1,051 yards and a 17.2-yard average. His 61 catches still rank fifth on the Bruins' career list — one less than Carney and two more than Townsell. An All-Pacific-8 Conference first-team selection in 1974, Andersen was chosen on the 11th round of the 1976 National Football League draft by the Chicago Bears.

During his prep career at Anaheim High, Norm came under the guiding hand of the legendary Clare VanHoorebeke, and was All-Orange County and All-CIF. He also served as football and basketball captain, and senior class president. In his first season at UCLA, he starred at split end and safety for the Brubabes, the Bruins' freshman team. Head coach Pepper Rodgers decided to redshirt Andersen in 1972 and the result was an outstanding three-year career.

BOB FIELD

(Arkansas '71)
Assistant Coach and
Co-Defensive Coordinator

Now in his fourth season at UCLA, Bob Field's chief occupation seems to be the reconstruction of the outside linebacking corps. He was saddled with that chore during his first Westwood tour in 1979, and again upon his return in 1981.

In 1979, early-season injuries sidelined starters Brad Plemmons and Glenn Windom and forced Field to go with untested juniors Larry Hall and Scott Stauch. Field was such a good teacher that Plemmons and Windom were unable to win back their jobs the next season.

Bob left the coaching ranks after the 1979 season to enter private business, but when his replacement departed after the 1980 campaign, Field reapplied and was rehired. Windom and untested senior Ike Gordon started the season at the outside spots, but when Windom saw his career end with a third knee injury, Plemmons came on to finish off his college days in grand style. Through another injury-plagued season, Field was able to develop some depth in the persons of redshirt sophomore Doug West and freshman Neal Dellocono — his probable starters this year.

In addition to his regular coaching duties this season, Bob will be co-defensive coordinator with secondary coach Tom Hayes.

Prior to coming to UCLA in 1978, Field was a member of the Mississippi State University coaching staff. In 1977, in addition to his other duties, he served as the Bulldog assistant head coach.

In all, Field spent five seasons at Mississippi State coaching the defensive backs. He did double duty by also serving as defensive coordinator.

Field, 33, gained valuable experience during his collegiate playing career at Arkansas. He was a three-year (1968-70) letterman for Frank Broyles and became a regular in the defensive backfield midway through his sophomore season. In his three years on the varsity, the Razorbacks compiled a record of 28-5, including a Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia.

An outstanding high school athlete at Farwell (Tex.) High School, Field earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Field is married to the former Judy Hurley and they have three sons, Kyle 9, Brian 7, and Michael 2. The Fields now reside in Westlake Village.

TOM HAYES

(Iowa '71)
Assistant Coach and
Co-Defensive Coordinator

Last season UCLA's secondary intercepted 18 passes. And this season every defensive back returns, which should keep a smile on the face of secondary coach Tom Hayes. What's more important is that Hayes is coaching a very seasoned group of players—six of whom can total 93 career starting appearances. In addition to his regular coaching duties this season, Tom will be co-defensive coordinator along with outside linebacker coach Bob Field.

In 1980, his first season in Westwood, he was blessed with three-time consensus All-American Kenny Easley, who stepped from the Bruins' lineup into a starting berth with the Seattle Seahawks. That year UCLA also ranked second in Pacific-10 Conference pass defense, interceptions, fewest passing touchdowns allowed and fewest yards per passing attempt.

Hayes came to UCLA from Cal State Fullerton, where he worked as defensive coordinator under former Bruin assistant Jim Colletto. During the 1979 season, his only one at Fullerton, Tom had the Titans leading the Pacific Coast Athletic Association in total defense as well as pass defense after ranking dead last the previous campaign.

A native of Keokuk, IA, Hayes began his coaching career as secondary coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA, after two seasons as a high school assistant. In his one season at Coe (1973), the secondary set a Midwest Conference record with 27 interceptions while the team won the league title.

His next stop was Carroll, IA, where he served as head coach at Kuemper High School for three seasons (1974-76) before returning to his alma mater, the University of Iowa. Hayes spent the next two seasons (1977-78) as the Hawkeye secondary coach.

Hayes, 33, attended Atlantic (IA) High School where he was a multi-sport star, earning a total of nine letters in football, basketball and track (three each) as well as All-State honors in both football and basketball. At the University of Iowa, he was a three-year starter in the secondary and signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals at the end of his collegiate career.

Hayes, whose brother-in-law, Ed Podolak, was a running back for the Kansas City Chiefs, is married to the former Cindy Kuiken and they have a son, Andy, 5, and a daughter, Lindsay, 2.

ED KEZIRIAN

Assistant Coach

Ed Kezirian had other things on his mind the week of the 1977 USC-UCLA game. He was a graduate assistant coach in charge of opponents' films. He was also looking for full-time employment, as he told a sportswriter that hectic week. "As soon as the season is over I'll be seeking a full-time assistant's job," he said, a trace of sorrow in his voice. "I'd love to stay on here (at UCLA), but Terry (head coach Terry Donahue) wants experienced assistants and experience is what I need. Like him, someday down the road, I'll get back into this program."

Four years later Ed Kezirian returns to the UCLA football program to instruct the Bruins' young tackles and tight ends. There is no Tim Wrightman at tight end, no Luis Sharpe at right tackle, no returning All-Americans or all-conference performers. Needless to say, Ed has his hands full. But then, he's never been one to shirk responsibility; not while working the farms and ranches around his native Fresno as a youngster, not while earning All-Pacific-8 Conference honors as a UCLA senior, not as a graduate assistant for the Bruins and not as a full-time assistant at the University of Hawaii.

Kezirian, 30, earned six varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball at Central Union High in Fresno. His fondest memories were catching a tackle-eligible touchdown pass and a two-point conversion pass for the winning points against Chowchilla as a senior and an interception that set up a TD while playing defensive tackle against Washington Union.

He spent two seasons at Reedley Junior College and two more at UCLA, earning all-conference honors and the Bruins' Kenneth S. Washington Award as the outstanding senior offensive player. After two years with the Southern California Sun of the World Football League, Ed returned to Westwood. His responsibilities during the next two seasons included coaching the offensive and defensive lines and scout teams.

In 1978 he was hired by Hawaii head coach and former Bruin assistant Dick Tomey. The next four years were spent coaching the Rainbows' tight ends, tackles and special teams. He coached the special teams his last two seasons and handled the entire offensive line in 1981.

Ed is married to the former Kay Lorraine Hall, and they have a son, Blane, 1. They are expecting their second child during the Christmas season.

(East Tennessee State '56)
Assistant Coach

The only remaining member of Terry Donahue's original staff, Don Riley returns for his seventh coaching season in Westwood and will be responsible for the Bruin centers and guards. Under Riley's guidance, UCLA's interior line has provided ample running room for such talented Bruin tailbacks as Freeman McNeil, Theotis Brown and current starter Kevin Nelson. Five of Riley's proteges, including former Bruins Brent Boyd (Minnesota Vikings) and John Tautolo (New England Patriots) currently are playing in the NFL.

No one on the Bruin staff has more coaching experience than Riley. Now entering his 26th year in football, the personable coach welcomes back one starter, two part-time starters and a pair of experienced redshirts at center and guard. Riley is in his 17th season as a college coach, and also coached in the high school ranks for nine years.

Before coming to Westwood in 1976, Riley spent four years at Oklahoma State (1972-75). Prior to that, he served six years at Vanderbilt (1966-71). If anything, Don's background is diverse. He has coached every position in collegiate football except the defensive line.

Following graduation from East Tennessee State University in Johnson City in 1956, he coached first at Lynch (KY) High, his alma mater, for three years (1956-58); one year (1959) at East Tennessee State, and then six years (1960-1965) as head coach and athletic director at Greenville (TN) High. Incidentally, in nine years of prep coaching, Don's teams won 70 percent of their games.

A fine athlete, Riley was an All-Kentucky State quarterback at Lynch High where he lettered in basketball as well. He then went to Lamar (CO) Junior College and starred at quarterback for one season. He transferred to East Tennessee State and played quarterback for three years. He also played two years of college baseball.

Born in Dungannon, VA, he is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children, Donna, 21, Karen, 18, and Roger, 15.

GREG ROBINSON

Assistant Coach

The newest member of Terry Donahue's staff, Greg Robinson returns home to his native Los Angeles after a two-year stint as linebacker coach at North Carolina State. Robinson, 30, brings with him impressive credentials from the Atlantic Coast Conference, where the Wolfpack boasted one of the most respected defenses in the nation. At UCLA, he will handle the defensive line.

Last season, N.C. State held Fiesta Bowl champion Penn State to 198 total yards and highly touted South Carolina to 124. In the past two seasons, two of Robinson's linebackers, Neal Musser (Atlanta Falcons) and Robert Abraham (Houston Oilers), have made professional rosters.

A fine recruiter, Robinson spent three seasons at Cal State Fullerton where he coached the Titan offensive linemen in 1977, defensive linemen in 1978 and the linebackers in '79. At the University of the Pacific, where he graduated in 1975 with a BA in political science, he tutored the receivers as a graduate assistant and later the defensive linemen.

Born in Los Angeles, he prepped at Garces High in Bakersfield where he earned varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball. A versatile football player, he lettered two years at three positions, linebacker, tight end and center while at UOP.

Following high school, he attended Bakersfield Junior College, receiving letters as a linebacker and tight end, while playing on the Renegade team that was ranked No. 1 nationally.

Robinson and his wife, the former Laura Breakey, have two children, Dominic, 3, and Lindsay, 1.

HOMER SMITH

(Princeton '54)
Offensive Coordinator

Quarterback Tom Ramsey was inserted into UCLA's starting lineup about the same time Homer Smith returned to Westwood as offensive coordinator prior to the 1980 season. The parallel is natural because as Ramsey began playing regularly, Smith's offensive innovations started gaining the same notoriety as his Wishbone-T invention of the early 1970's.

Smith, who will handle the quarterbacks as well as the receivers this season, has helped Ramsey become one of the most proficient passers in UCLA history, if not the country. Ramsey led the Pacific-10 in completion percentage (.595) in 1981 and he is within striking distance of becoming UCLA's career leader in completions, yardage, touchdown passes and completion percentage.

In the 1970's, Smith installed UCLA's awesome Wishbone formation under the auspices of Pepper Rodgers. This offense, still copied by some schools, rewrote the UCLA record book by averaging 42.7 points and 470.6 total yards in 1973—standards that still exist.

After that 1973 campaign, Homer followed Rodgers to Georgia Tech but was appointed head coach at Army prior to the 1974 season. The Cadets were noted for their offense during the next five years (1974-78) and in 1976 quarterback Leamon Hall ranked sixth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense.

Homer starred in football, basketball and track at Omaha (NE) Benson High and prepped at Lawrenceville School in Lawrence, NJ, before entering Princeton. There he won All-East and All-Ivy League honors at fullback as a junior and senior, and also was a standout in track. His biggest day as a collegian came in 1952 when he smashed school records by rushing for 273 yards and scoring four touchdowns. He graduated in 1954 with honors in economics and recently earned his MA in theological studies from Harvard Divinity School. In addition, he also received an MBA from Stanford in 1960.

Smith, who has written numerous magazine articles and books on offense, was the 1969 regional Coach of the Year while at Davidson and the 1977 Eastern College Coach of the Year. He is married to the former Kathryn Haskell and they have two daughters, Kimberly, 26, and Carolyn, 23.

TED WILLIAMS

(Cal Poly Pomona '65)
Assistant Coach

Last year's worryspot has been transformed into this season's strength, thanks to the expertise of inside linebacker coach Ted Williams. All Williams had to work with last fall was Blanchard Montgomery, a 6-2½, 230-pound former fullback, and Ron Butler and Gene Mewborn, both inexperienced non-starters. Under Williams' tutelage, this threesome accounted for 223 stops a year ago and those numbers are sure to increase with the return of all three players in 1982.

Williams made a habit of being a successful football teacher during his years as a high school coach. He joined the UCLA staff in March, 1980, from Los Angeles City College where he had been named head coach the previous month. Before his appointment to LACC, he served as head coach at Compton (CA) High School where he earned a reputation as one of the most respected prep coaches in the area.

He compiled a fine 44-21-3 record in six seasons as the Tarbabe head coach, and in 1978 his team captured the CIF Coastal Conference championship. The following year, Compton was CIF runner-up to Long Beach Millikan and Williams was honored as Coastal Conference Coach of the Year. He also guided the Tarbabes to a 21-game winning streak (snapped by Millikan) and lost a total of only three games in his final three seasons at Compton.

Prior to becoming head coach at Compton, he worked at the school for six seasons as an assistant coach. His assignments include tackles and tight ends, linebackers and defensive ends, down linemen, receivers, running backs and quarterbacks, giving him first-hand knowledge on coaching many different positions.

In addition to his coaching assignments, William also served as Compton athletic director from 1974-77 and taught biology, mathematics and physical education.

Williams, 38, graduated from Cal Poly Pomona in 1965 with a degree in physical education. While at Pomona, he lettered in basketball and baseball. He also owns a Masters Degree in Physical Education as well as Standard Teaching, Supervision and Administrative Credentials from Cal State University, Los Angeles.

A native of Lyons, TX, Williams was married to the former Gwendolyn Tolliver, who passed away on July 19. Williams has two children, Darryl, 12, and Terri, 10.

ART AKERS

(UCLA '82)
Part-Time Assistant Coach

After serving a year as a volunteer assistant coach on the UCLA staff, Art Akers has been promoted to part-time assistant coach. Akers' responsibilities include working with the defensive scout team, assisting Bob Field and Ted Williams with the linebackers and aiding in the film exchange program.

A four-year letterman for the Bruins as an inside linebacker, Akers totalled over 200 stops in his career. As a senior, he was honored for his outstanding scholarship, receiving the Jack R. Robinson Memorial Award.

Born in Birmingham, AL, Akers prepped at Classical High in Lynn, MA, where he earned varsity letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. He made 111 tackles as a senior and earned All-America honors from Parade, Coach & Athlete and Scholastic Coach magazine.

RON DAVIS

Part-Time Assistant Coach

Ron Davis is in his third year on the UCLA coaching staff after a fine career as a Bruin offensive lineman. Last season he served as a part-time coach, after working as a volunteer coach in 1980.

His primary duty will be to assist coach Greg Robinson and the defensive linemen. In addition, he will also be in charge of the offensive scout team, scouting for the defense and assisting with the film exchange program.

Ron and his brother Bruce arrived at UCLA in 1975 after earning prep All-America honors at Lackey High School in Indian Head, Maryland. He played three seasons (1977-79) with the varsity as an offensive guard and joined the coaching staff in 1980.

BILL REES

(Ohio Wesleyan '76)
Athletic Department
Recruiting Coordinator

Now in his fourth year as the athletic department recruiting coordinator, Bill Rees has been instrumental in UCLA signing 19 All-American football players during the past three recruiting seasons. He originally joined the Bruin administration in April of 1979 as recruiting coordinator and strength coach.

A native of Wilmette, IL, Bill is responsible for the evaluation of prospective student-athletes, both athletically and academically, for all UCLA sports.

Rees, 28, came to UCLA from Northwestern University. There he coached for three seasons (1976-78), one tutoring the defensive backs and two as coach of the offensive backs.

A multi-sport star at New Trier East High, Bill earned two letters each in football, basketball, and baseball. He graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1976 after lettering three years in football.

DONN SWANBOM

(Nebraska '76)
Athletic Department Strength and Conditioning Coach

The overall success of the UCLA men's and women's intercollegiate athletic programs in the 1981-82 season can be attributed in part to the tremendous strides made by Strength and Conditioning Coach Donn Swanbom. Last year's five NCAA titles brought back to Westwood are the result of talent, training and coaching plus long hours in the weight room under Donn's direction.

Swanbom, 28, came to UCLA in 1980 from Southern Methodist University where he had spent the previous three years (1977-79) as head strength coach. Prior to that, he spent two seasons (1975-76) as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska, his alma mater. Included among the athletes with whom he has worked are current NFL stars John Dutton, A.J. Duhe, Arthur Whittington, Rick Bonness, Tony Davis, Rick Berns, Freeman McNeil, Larry Lee and Kenny Easley as well as 1982 first-round draft choice Luis Sharpe and third rounder Tim Wrightman.

A native of Scottsbluff, NE, Swanbom attended Gering (NE) High School and earned All-State honors and three letters in football. He also earned two letters in wrestling and was a national tournament qualifier in the freestyle category.

He then lettered twice in football at Fort Hays Kansas State University before transferring to Nebraska. He graduated in 1976 with a degree in Physical Education after beginning his coaching career with the Cornhuskers.

Swanbom also writes books on strength, including his most popular, titled, Strength of the UCLA Bruins, for use by UCLA athletes.

first-team All-Ocean League honors and serving as team captain and MVP . . . Averaged 20.2 yards per reception for his career to go with six touchdowns and seven interceptions . . . Also played two years of varsity basketball, averaging 7.5 points and 8.0 rebounds . . . PERSONAL — Born in Denville, NJ . . . Hometown is Manhattan Beach, CA . . . Father Phillip was a wrestler at Lehigh, brother Dru played football at Santa Clara and uncle Augie is a major league baseball umpire . . . Majoring in Math/Computer Science . . . Full name is Douglas Robert Donatelli.

6-4, 260, Sr., Lynn, MA

UCLA — Will be UCLA's starting center in 1982 after starting five of the first six games at right guard a year ago and then switching back to center, where he alternated with Dave Otey . . . The position is a familiar one to Dufour, who spent the entire 1980 season alternating with Otey . . . Was hampered by injuries much of last season . . . Suffered a pinched nerve in his neck during a pre-season scrimmage and had to wear a special protective pad throughout the year . . . Also missed one game (Colorado) with a knee injury but returned to the lineup the following week . . . Has the size and the experience necessary to play this important position . . . The injury factor has, at times, slowed his progress, but he made it through Spring Practice without any problems and showed improvement, especially on his pass protection . . . Will also handle the long snaps on kicks, a duty he performed as a sophomore . . . Served as a part-time starter at center in 1980 . . . Suffered knee injury in final game of year (Mirage Bowl) and had to undergo surgery . . . Saw action as a reserve center in 1979 and was also used as an extra defensive lineman in goal line situations . . . Switched from guard to center following the 1978 season, one in which he did not compete with the varsity and retained his year of eligibility . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Bill Wise at Classical High School in Lynn, MA . . . Earned All-America honors from NHSACA and Coach & Athlete . . . Also earned All-State and All-League acclaim . . . Lettered in track and served as football and track captain . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Lynn, MA . . . A high school teammate of UCLA part-time assistant coach Arthur Akers . . . Sociology major . . . Full name is Daniel Arthur Dufour.

29 MIKE DURDEN, Right Cornerback
6-1¼, 185, Sr., La Mesa, CA

UCLA — Saw extensive action last season, alternating with Walter Lang at right cornerback, and hopes to start in 1982 . . . One of four cornerbacks (Lupe Sanchez, Jimmy Turner and Lang are the others) with extensive experience . . . Made 36 tackles in 1981, including 34 primaries . . . Made a career-high seven tackles versus Washington and made an interception against Oregon . . . Was on the field for over 400 plays despite not starting a game and figured prominently in UCLA's nickel and dime alignments . . . One of the fastest players on the team as illustrated by his average of 4.62 for three 40-yard dashes this past Spring, Durden emerged from Spring Practice listed No. 2 behind Turner in their battle at right corner . . . A late bloomer, Durden has made great strides in the last year and a half . . . The experience he gained last year should help him immensely in 1982 . . . Has great speed and more confidence in his ability than a year ago . . . Had a fine sophomore season, seeing action mostly in five- and six-man alignments . . . Started in place of an injured Kenny Easley versus Stanford and made a touchdown-saving interception on the five yard line . . . Made 27 tackles (20 primary) for the year . . . Had six tackles to go with his interception against Stanford . . . Played enough to letter as a second-year freshman in 1979 after sitting out this first season at UCLA . . . Practiced as a receiver that first year . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Jim Arnaiz at Helix High School in La Mesa, CA . . . Quarterbacked team as a senior after starting at receiver as a junior . . . Passed for 1,426 yards in 1977 and made 32 receptions in 1976 . . . PERSONAL — Born in Los Angeles . . . Hometown is La Mesa, CA . . . Father Earnel, now coaching with the San Diego Chargers, is a former UCLA assistant . . . Majoring in Sociology . . . Full name is Earnel Michael Durden.

75 IRV EATMAN, Defensive Left Tackle
6-6¼, 264, Sr., Dayton, OH

UCLA — Suffered torn tendons and ligaments in his foot in a June motorcycle accident but should be ready for Fall drills thanks to successful surgery . . . One of the nation's best players at his position, Eatman should be ready for a big senior year after a 1981 season in which he earned All-America honorable mention and All-Coast (UPI) acclaim . . . Accounted for 51 tackles, just two fewer than in 1980, despite being double teammed all season and watching opposing offenses run away from his side . . . The Bruin coaches have taken care of part of that problem by switching Irv from the right side to the left side in order to force opponents to run the ball in his direction (most offenses are right-handed) . . . One of the "old men" on the defense with 23 career starts, Eatman has been a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award each of the last two seasons and should be a favorite in 1982 . . . His 51 tackles (37 primary) were second only to Karl Morgan among defensive linemen . . . Had his best day in 31-0 victory over Washington, making eight tackles (all unassisted), including two sacks and one other for minus yardage . . . Tied for the team lead in tipped passes (three), was second in tackles for loss (seven) and tied for second in passes hurried (seven) . . . Also saw action at offensive tackle in one game (Arizona State) for a few plays . . . Came on during the last week of Spring Practice and showed some real consistency . . . His size, speed (4.84) and strength should make him one of college football's most dominating players in 1982 . . . Moved into the national spotlight as a sophomore when he led UCLA's 17-0 shutout of Ohio State . . . Spent the afternoon harrassing Buckeye quarterback Art Schlichter into perhaps the worst afternoon of his career (59 net yards total offense) . . . Sacked Schlichter four times, twice on successive plays, and made nine total tackles . . . Selected Associated Press Defensive Player of the Week and ABC-Chevrolet Player of the Game for his efforts . . . Finished his sophomore campaign with 53 tackles and earned All-America honorable mention and Sophomore All-America, All-Coast and All-Pacific-10 first-team acclaim . . . Led the team with eight quarterback sacks and 10 others behind the line of scrimmage . . . Was the only sophomore named among the Lombardi Award semifinalists . . . Switched to defense in the Spring of 1980 after playing as a reserve offensive tackle and tight end as a freshman in 1979 . . . Also was utilized as an extra defensive lineman in goal line situations as a freshman . . . Earned first-team Freshman All-America honors . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach George Kellar at Meadowdale High School in Dayton, OH . . . Earned All-America honors on every major team and was also selected to Coach & Athlete's All-America Cum Laude squad . . . Also lettered in baseball and basketball . . . Served as football and basketball captain . . . PERSONAL — Born in Birmingham, AL . . . Hometown is Dayton, OH . . . Enjoys music, basketball and meeting new people . . . Likes to travel . . . Lists 17-0 victory at Ohio State and victory over USC in 1980 as his athletic highlights . . . History major . . . Full name is Irvin Humphrey Eatman

TRI-CAPTAINS

For the first time in the Terry Donahue Era, UCLA has selected season captains. The 1982 tri-captains are quarterback Tom Ramsey, nose guard Karl Morgan and strong safety Tom Sullivan.

50 MARK FERGUSON, Nose Guard
6-1¾, 226, Sr., Santa Ana, CA

UCLA — Once again, Mark Ferguson is attempting to overcome an injury . . . This time, it is a knee injury that required surgery and kept him from competing in Spring Practice . . . Despite being sidelined, he was at practice every day to learn some of the new techniques in the hopes of earning playing time this Fall . . . Enters the Fall listed No. 3 at nose guard . . . Played in the first 10 games of the year as the No. 2 NG behind Karl Morgan, making 15 tackles . . . Had three tackles against Wisconsin and Washington . . . Has been jinxed with injuries throughout his Bruin career . . . Played in just one game in 1980 due to a dislocated toe suffered in Spring Practice . . . Missed all but the final game (Oregon State) of the year . . . Was a very consistent player in 1979, starting seven games and making 27 tackles, including a career-high nine against Arizona State . . . Did not see action as a freshman, practicing as a linebacker, and retained his eligibility . . . Co-winner of UCLA's Charles Pike Memorial Award for Junior Varsity Captain that year . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Dick Hill at Santa Ana (CA) Valley High School . . . Played linebacker and tight end, making 146 tackles and 11 receptions as a senior . . . Selected Orange County Lineman and Defensive Player of the Year and was a third-team CIF Division I selection . . . Also starred in baseball, batting .420 as a junior and .390 as a senior . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Santa Ana, CA . . . 74 STEVE GEMZA, Offensive Left Tackle
6-7, 253, Jr., Dayton, OH

UCLA — One of three players battling for the two starting tackle berths . . . Had the best Spring Practice of his career and emerged listed No. 2 on the left side but that could change daily in the Fall . . . Saw the majority of his action on the right side a year ago as the No. 1 reserve behind All-American Luis Sharpe . . . A very intelligent player who knows the offensive system . . . A good pass blocker . . . Improved his movement during Spring and established himself as one of the team's top three tackles (Don Mahlstedt and Dave Baran being the others) . . . The fastest of the offensive tackles, having been timed in 5.01 seconds for 40 yards in the Spring . . . Enters 1982 as a junior thanks to the NCAA's retroactive rule allowing redshirting during the freshman year . . . Showed great improvement throughout the 1980 season while lettering as a reserve . . . Did not see action in his first year at UCLA (1979), but did not lose the year of eligibility . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Rick Hoffman at Charninade-Julienne High School in Dayton, OH . . . Earned All-America, All-State and All-Area first-team honors . . . Also lettered in track and threw the discus 160 feet . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Dayton, OH . . . 57 REX GRAY, Outside Linebacker
6-3, 200, Sr., Palm Springs, CA

UCLA — Has been bothered by injuries during his years at Westwood but, thanks to his switch from inside to outside linebacker, he could be ready to enjoy a big senior season . . . Saw limited action last year, making a total of five tackles as a reserve ILB . . . This fifth-year senior has outstanding speed (4.66 in Spring 1981) and knows the defensive system very well . . . If he stays healthy, he could see considerable playing time behind Neal Dellocono on the left side . . . Enters Fall drills as one of the most experienced players at the OLB position . . .

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Moved there from ILB at the start of Spring Practice . . . Saw very limited action at inside linebacker in 1980 . . . Played outside in 1979 but playing time was sparse due to knee problems . . . Did not see action in his first year (1978) at UCLA, retaining the year of eligibility . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Carlyle Lewis at Palm Springs (CA) High School, winning second-team All-League acclaim . . . 62 DON MAHLSTEDT, Offensive Right Tackle
6-3½, 251, Jr., Tustin, CA

UCLA — Made a fine transition from guard to tackle last season, starting the first 10 games of the year despite being handicapped by a nagging shoulder injury . . . Was one of the key performers on last year's offensive line and enters the 1982 season as the only tackle with any starting experience . . . Listed No. 1 on the right side after starting 10 games on the left side a year ago but will be in a three-way battle with Dave Baran and Steve Gemza for the two starting positions . . . Missed some of Spring Practice due to injury but graded well when he participated . . . A talented, intelligent, experienced performer whose strength is his pass-blocking ability . . . Lettered as a reserve guard in 1980 and then switched to tackle the following Spring . . . Did not see action in his first year (1979) at UCLA due to a medical problem and was awarded an additional year of eligibility by the Pacific-10 Council . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Al Rosmino at Foothill High School in Santa Ana, CA . . . Earned All-League and All-Orange County honors following a senior year in which he played on both sides of the line of scrimmage . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Tustin, CA . . . Is involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . Full name is Michael Karl Morgan.

3 KEVIN NELSON, Tailback
5-10½, 187, Jr., Los Angeles, CA

UCLA — Nelson need only stay free of injuries to firmly establish himself as one of the finer tailbacks in the nation . . . When he was healthy he enjoyed a fine sophomore campaign, rushing for 883 yards, scoring five touchdowns and catching eight passes . . . Was bothered by ankle and knee problems throughout the season but still finished No. 11 on UCLA's single-season rushing list with the 883 yards . . . Ranked No. 3 in the Pac-10 in rushing average . . . Rushed for better than 100 yards on four occasions and accounted for more than 90 in two other games . . . Started and played parts of 10 games, missing two full contests and parts of several others . . . Slashed through Arizona for 152 yards in the season-opener, his best effort of the year and the second-best of his career . . . Also accumulated 126 yards versus Colorado, 116 against Stanford in a showdown with his older brother Darrin, and 111 versus Arizona State . . . Had a career-long run of 37 yards . . . Rushed for five touchdowns, the most scored by a Bruin on the ground last year . . . Had a good Spring Practice and emerged as the No. 1 tailback although the competition at this key position is very intense . . . Improved his pass catching and route running skills and the coaching staff intends to take advantage of his many talents as much as possible this year . . . Caught eight passes for 64 yards a year ago but should increase those totals in 1982 . . . Needs only remain healthy to be a star, thanks to 4.52 speed and great natural instincts . . . Enters his junior season with 1,364 net rushing yards and if he stays healthy, should surpass Freeman McNeil as UCLA's all-time leading rusher (3,195 yards) . . . Earned All-America honorable mention as well as second-team All-Pacific-10 acclaim . . . Each of the three backs on the Pac-10's first team (Gerald Riggs, Marcus Allen and brother Darrin) were among the first 10 selections in the 1982 NFL draft . . . Enjoyed a fine season as UCLA's No. 2 tailback in 1980, setting UCLA freshman records for most rushing yards in a game (186 versus Arizona State) and a season (481) . . . His effort against the Sun Devils placed him No. 6 on UCLA's single-game rushing list . . . Made two starts in place of McNeil and was over 100 yards in each, rushing for 123 versus Wisconsin in addition to his 186 against ASU . . . Scored four touchdowns as a freshman, including a four-yard TD versus Colorado on the third carry of his career . . . Longest Hobbies include fishing and art . . . Engineering major . . . Full name is Antony Wayne Phillips.

5-11, 174, So., Orchard Park, NY

UCLA — Earned a letter last season as a freshman special teams player . . . Was especially effective on kick coverage, causing a fumble against California . . . Made three tackles as a reserve cornerback . . . Has outstanding physical talent and should become a standout cornerback . . . His biggest problem in 1982 is the fact that there are three experienced seniors (Jimmy Turner, Walter Lang and Mike Durden) plus Lupe Sanchez ahead of him at cornerback . . . Had a fine Spring Practice — one of the best among defensive players . . . A very promising player who has fine speed (4.62), great quickness and the natural instincts for playing the game . . . Will probably see much of his playing time on special teams due to the experience ahead of him . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Tony Policare at Orchard Park (NY) High School . . . Played both defensive back and running back, and was considered one of the top prep DBs in the nation . . . Selected as a Parade All-American and the New York State Player of the Year as a senior . . . Also twice All-State and three times All-Division and All-Western New York . . . A one-man gang, Pitts rushed for 1,078 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaged 42.6 yards on 25 punts, returned one punt 50 yards for a touchdown, caused a safety and, as a defensive back, shut out his opponents in man-to-man coverage during his last two seasons . . . Scored a 60-yard TD on the last carry of his career and had his jersey retired . . . PERSONAL — Born in Detroit, MI . . . Hometown is Orchard Park, NY . . . Father is Elijah Pitts, who scored a touchdown in Super Bowl I against the Kansas City Chiefs and is a member of the Green Bay Packer Hall of Fame . . . Father is currently an assistant coach with the Houston Oilers . . . Major undeclared . . . Full name is Ronald D. Pitts.

4 KEN POTTER, Placekicker
6-1, 202, So., Alta Loma, CA

UCLA — The heir-apparent to Norm Johnson's placekicking job, Potter redshirted last year after earning a scholarship as a walk-on performer in 1980 . . . Possesses a strong leg and should be effective on kickoffs as well as placements . . . Kicked one PAT against Colorado as a freshman and made a total of five kickoffs against Colorado and Oregon State that same year . . . Has kicked some very long field goals during practice sessions and the coaches are hopeful he will have the same type of success during games . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Dick Larsen at Damien High School in La-Verne, CA . . . Did not own glittering statistics since team rarely attempted field goals . . . Also lettered in baseball . . . PERSONAL — Born in Pomona, CA . . . Hometown is Alta Loma . . . Most memorable athletic moment is earning a scholarship at UCLA . . . Enjoys baseball and soccer . . . Majoring in Economics . . . Full name is Kenneth Francis Potter.

14 TOM RAMSEY, Quarterback and Tri-Captain
6-0, 188, Sr., Granada Hills, CA

UCLA — One of the top returning quarterbacks in the nation, Ramsey figures to break all of UCLA's career passing records with a successful senior campaign . . . Will serve as a tri-captain in 1982 . . . An All-America honorable mention QB a year ago, Ramsey enters 1982 tied for the No. 1 spot in career touchdown passes (29) and ranks third in pass attempts (415), pass completions (232) and passing yards (3,182) . . . Had an outstanding year in 1981, setting a school record with 16 touchdown passes, one more than Dennis Dummit tossed in 1969 . . . Completed 134 of 230 passes for 1,793 yards and a percentage of .583 to go along with his 16 scoring aerials . . . His 134 completions were the second most ever by a Bruin quarterback, trailing only Dummit's 175 in 1970 . . . Dummit is also the only Bruin to throw for more yards in a single season, doing it in 1969 and 1970 . . . Ramsey completed the regular season ranked 11th in the nation and second in the Pacific-10 in passing efficiency and led league in yards per attempt (8.0) . . . Also ranked fifth in the conference in total offense with a 149.6 average . . . Had the best day of his career against Colorado, completing 15 of 23 passes for 258 yards and two touchdowns . . . The 258 yards were the most by a Bruin QB since Dummit threw for 272 against USC in 1970 . . . Came back the following week to hit on 16 of 22 passes for 213 yards and one TD against Stanford . . . Also passed for 177 yards versus Arizona State, 172 and three scores in the season-opener against Arizona and 162 and two touchdowns versus Michigan in the Bluebonnet Bowl . . . Was especially effective against ASU, rallying the Bruins from a 14-point deficit in a game they had to win . . . In addition to his 16 passing touchdowns, he also scored three on the ground to account for 19 TDs . . . Rushed for 240 gross yards . . . Started all 12 games . . . His longest pass of the year was a 57-yard scoring strike to Jojo Townsell against Arizona State . . . His .583 completion percentage was the best by a Bruin since Don Long connected on .625 of his attempts and Ramsey's career mark of .559 is far and away the best among the players in UCLA's all-time career top ten . . . Has been a starter since the 10th game of his freshman year and enters 1982 with a record of 16-7-1 in games in which he has started . . . Has outstanding leadership abilities . . . Always seems to get the job done one way or another . . . Improved greatly between his sophomore and junior seasons and was a co-winner of UCLA's Captain Don Brown Memorial Trophy for most improved player . . . Enjoyed a fine year in 1980, passing for 1,116 yards, the second highest total ever by a Bruin sophomore . . . Completed 82 of 148 aerials for a .554 percentage and nine touchdowns . . . Was at his best early in the year, leading UCLA to a 6-0 record including victories over Purdue, Ohio State and Stanford . . . Accounted for 12 touchdowns rushing and passing in the first seven games . . . Passed for a season-high 197 yards at Arizona and also threw for 170 yards at Purdue, 157 against Stanford and 154 and two touchdowns at California . . . Completed 42 of 69 attempts (.609) for 600 yards and six touchdowns in one four-game stretch . . . Made two starts as a freshman but made his mark by coming off the bench to lead UCLA to a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Arizona State, scoring the winning touchdown with nine seconds remaining in the game . . . Earned his first start the following week and directed UCLA to a 35-0 victory over Oregon, throwing two touchdown passes in the process . . . On the year he threw for 273 yards, including a 63-yard touchdown to Jojo Townsell versus Arizona State that is still the longest completion of his career . . . Has accounted for 38 touchdowns (29 passing and nine rushing) during his career . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach John Haynes at Kennedy High School in Granada Hills, CA . . . Earned All-America honorable mention as a senior by passing for 1,432 yards . . . Threw for over 2,000 yards as a junior . . . Earned second-team All-City as well as first-team All-Valley and All-Mid Valley League honors . . . 1977 Valley Back of the Year . . . Played in the same league as Stanford's John Elway . . . Caught 38 passes as a senior and earned All-America honors from Parade and the NHSACA as well as All-State acclaim . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Dallas, TX . . . Father Vernon played one year of college football at U. of Colorado . . . Older brother Michael played at SMU and younger brother Steve plays at North Texas State . . . Greatest athletic thrill was going to State high school playoffs and playing before a large crowd . . . Enjoys photography and weightlifting . . . History major . . . Full name is David Thomas Randle.

7 DON ROGERS, Free Safety
6-1, 203, Jr., Sacramento, CA

UCLA — Received a big break during Fall practice sessions and made the most of it, starting 11 games and leading the team with 133 tackles . . . The break was the one to Lupe Sanchez' arm that forced Jimmy Turner to return to cornerback and Tom Sullivan to strong safety, opening the free safety spot for Rogers . . . Until that time, Sullivan was pencilled in as the free safety ahead of Rogers . . . Now it will take a land mine to get Don out of the lineup . . . Reminded UCLA observers of another outstanding free safety — three-time consensus All-American

32 TOM SULLIVAN, Strong Safety and Tri-Captain
5-10, 188, Sr., Northridge, CA

UCLA — A vastly underrated performer who illustrates what college athletics is all about . . . In 1978, he earned a spot on the roster as a non-scholarship player but did not see any varsity action . . . As a second-year freshman in 1979, he moved into the starting lineup at cornerback . . . The last two years he has established himself as one of the nation's top players at his position and enters 1982 as perhaps the best strong safety in school history . . . Will serve as one of UCLA's tri-captains this season . . . Earned All-Pacific-10 second-team honors for an outstanding season in which he tied for the conference lead with six interceptions and was No. 2 behind Don Rogers with 109 tackles . . . Also ranked fourth in the league with an 8.4 regular-season punt return average . . . Averaged 8.0 yards for the entire year . . . Has started 27 games over three years, the most by any member on the team . . . Led the team by causing five fumbles and recovered a lateral pass that led to an important touchdown in UCLA's victory at Wisconsin . . . Intercepted two passes and broke up two others against Arizona . . . Made 10 or more tackles four times, led by a 14-stop performance against USC that netted him UCLA's Donn D. Moomaw Award for Outstanding Defensive Player in the USC Game . . . Also made 12 tackles against Washington and Washington State . . . His six pass interceptions give him 11 for his career, tying him for No. 3 on UCLA's theft list . . . Has also returned 29 punts for a 6.7 average and should move into the school's top ten on this list as well . . . Had been expected to shift to free safety last Fall but a preseason injury to Lupe Sanchez put those plans on the shelf . . . The quarterback of the secondary, Sullivan calls all of the defensive coverages . . . He's like having a coach on the field . . . Has good speed (4.73) and fine anticipation as a deep defender . . . Started 10 games in 1980, earning second-team Sophomore All-America honors . . . Made 63 tackles to rank No. 5 on the team . . . Had a season-high 11 tackles versus Arizona State . . . UCLA's 23RD YEAR IN PAC-10

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-10 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC, and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964 and the league was officially named the Pacific-8. On July 1, 1978, Arizona and Arizona State joined the conference and the league officially became the Pacific-10. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-10 rivals since 1959:

1981 GAMES

September 12: UCLA 35, ARIZONA 18
AT ARIZONA STADIUM, TUCSON, AZ

In their biggest scoring spree of the season, the UCLA Bruins opened the 1981 campaign with seasonal highs of 27 first downs, 366 yards rushing, 83 offensive plays and 512 total yards. Junior quarterback Tom Ramsey demonstrated early that he was ready to have one of the best seasons in UCLA history by throwing three touchdown passes — two of them to senior tight end James Forge. Sophomore tailback Kevin Nelson sliced through the evening heat (91 degrees) and Wildcat defenders for 152 yards, the second best total of his young career. Junior fullback Frank Bruno enjoyed his most productive game as a Bruin with 86 yards and one touchdown while junior split end Cormac Carney and senior flanker Willie Curran accounted for the other Bruin scores. Defensively, junior nose guard Karl Morgan, who would later be selected the team's most valuable defensive player for 1981, and sophomore safety Don Rogers were in on 11 tackles each and junior safety Tom Sullivan intercepted two passes as the Bruins held the Wildcats to just 34 net yards rushing.

1981 GAMES

September 19: UCLA 31, WISCONSIN 13
AT CAMP RANDALL STADIUM, MADISON, WI

Tom Ramsey continued his hot-handed play, hurling 27- and three-yard scoring strikes to senior tight end Tim Wrightman and scoring a third touchdown on a plunge from the one-yard line. The Badgers were coming off a great win over Big Ten rival Michigan, but the Bruins brought them back to earth in a hurry by scoring the first 14 points of the game on a Ramsey-to-Wrightman pass and Ramsey's touchdown. Wisconsin closed to within 21-13 at halftime but the Bruin defense dominated the second half, shutting out the Badgers, 10-0. A key play occurred early in the third quarter when Tom Sullivan pounced on Wisconsin quarterback Jess Cole's wild lateral pass to set up the only touchdown of the second half — a three-yard pass from Ramsey to Wrightman. Sophomore linebacker Ron Butler led the defense with 16 tackles, including a quarterback sack, while Don Rogers added 14 and junior linebacker Blanchard Montgomery chipped in with 11.

September 26: IOWA 20, UCLA 7
AT KINNICK STADIUM, IOWA CITY, IOWA

An overcast afternoon at Iowa turned out to be a dark day for the Bruins. The Hawkeye defense held UCLA to seasonal lows of seven first downs, 121 total yards and five turnovers. With offensive sparkplugs Kevin Nelson and Cormac Carney sidelined with injuries, the Bruins never got untracked against Iowa, which would spend New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl. Tom Ramsey's second-quarter sneak from the one yard line was UCLA's lone score and that was set up by a fumble recovery on the 20. The Bruins trailed only 10-7 entering the final period, thanks to the touchdown set up by defensive tackle Martin Moss' first fumble recovery of the afternoon. Seconds into the quarter, Moss made his second fumble recovery but three plays later, Ramsey fumbled in the end zone and Iowa defensive tackle Mark Bortz fell on the ball for Iowa's only touchdown of the second half.

October 3: UCLA 27, COLORADO 7
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

Returning to the Coliseum after playing their first three games on the road, the Bruins came out firing against the Golden Buffaloes. Tom Ramsey completed 15 of 23 passes for a career-high 258 yards, the most by a Bruin quarterback since 1970, and touchdowns of 10 and 14 yards to Cormac Carney and Tim Wrightman, respectively. Senior Norm Johnson helped UCLA build a 19-0 lead by kicking two field goals in the first quarter and two more in the second to tie Efren Herrera's school record for field goals in one game (four). Ramsey's 10-yard pass to Carney gave the Bruins a 19-point lead until Colorado scored with 11 seconds remaining in the half. As was the case against Wisconsin, the Bruin defense got tough in the second half and shut out the Buffs the rest of the way. For the game, Colorado accounted for just 161 total yards, including 54 through the air. Kevin Nelson enjoyed his second most effective day of the year with 126 yards while Wrightman caught a career-high five passes for 71 yards.

October 10: STANFORD 26, UCLA 23
AT STANFORD STADIUM, STANFORD, CA

The first and only collegiate meeting of UCLA's Kevin Nelson and Stanford's Darrin Nelson produced a nail-biting finish to a great sibling rivalry. Kevin scored the first touchdown and rushed for 116 yards but Darrin, in addition to running for 87 yards and catching seven passes for 74 more, scored the final touchdown of the afternoon to give the Cardinal its first victory of the year. The lead changed hands a total of five times before Darrin popped over from the two-yard line with just 46 seconds remaining in the game. UCLA led 7-3 after the first quarter and increased the margin to 14-3 just four seconds into the second period when Tom Ramsey found Tim Wrightman for a four-yard touchdown. However, Stanford closed to within 14-13 and then took a two-point lead into halftime thanks to a 47-yard field goal by Mark Harmon with no time remaining on the clock. Stanford still led by two entering the final period as the teams traded field goals to make the score 19-17. The Bruins regained the lead with 8:04 remaining in the game as fullback Frank Bruno capped a 15-play drive with a TD burst from the eight. However, Stanford wasn't finished and with quarterback John Elway and D. Nelson doing most of the damage, the Cardinal drove 62 yards in 12 plays for the winning score. The defeat was a tough one for UCLA, which outgained Stanford, 381-308, and for Ramsey, who completed 16 of 22 passes for 213 yards and one touchdown.

October 17: UCLA 17, WASHINGTON STATE 17 AT MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN, WA

Playing on the road for the fifth time in six weeks, the Bruins saw their record drop to 3-2-1 following the 17-17 tie with the Cougars. Washington State entered the regionally-televised game with a perfect 5-0 record and a record crowd of 40,000 came out to cheer for its team. Washington State drew first blood, scoring on a short run by Tim Harris following a scoreless first quarter, but UCLA countered 19 seconds later when Tom Ramsey found Cormac Carney over the middle and hit him for a 46-yard touchdown. Norm Johnson's three-pointer with eight seconds remaining in the period gave the Bruins a 10-7 halftime lead, but a 42-yard interception return by nose guard Matt Elisara early in the third quarter gave WSU the lead and the momentum. A missed field goal attempt by Johnson that some in attendance thought was good looked less important early in the final period when WSU padded its lead to 17-10 with a three-pointer of its own. However, UCLA wasn't finished. Cornerback Jimmy Turner recovered a Cougar fumble on the WSU 32-yard line and sophomore Steve Bono, who came off the bench late in the third quarter, marched the Bruins into the end zone for the game-tying score. Freshman tailback Burness Scott and sophomore fullback Frank Cephous did most of the damage and the latter scored from the six with just 4:53 remaining. Johnson's extra point left the final score at 17-17.

October 24: UCLA 34, CALIFORNIA 6 AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

Following the tie at WSU, head coach Terry Donahue told his team that the next five weeks would be a second season and that if the Bruins won those final five games, they would find themselves playing in the Rose Bowl. The Bruins obviously believed their head coach because they came out firing against the Golden Bears. They scored 17 points in each of the first two quarters enroute to their 10th straight victory over California. The Bears had a chance to score first, taking the opening kick and marching to the Bruin nine yard line before missing a field goal. UCLA countered by scoring on its first five possessions of the afternoon. It started just two and a half minutes after the Cal miss when Norm Johnson kicked a 49-yard field goal — the longest of his outstanding career. A Tom Sullivan interception set up Kevin Nelson's 14-yard touchdown and when Ricky Coffman recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff, the Bruins were again in scoring position. Less than two minutes later, Tom Ramsey and Tim Wrightman hooked up on a four-yard play to make the score 17-0 after one period. Safety Don Rogers then made his presence felt, recovering a fumble to set up a 15-yard TD run by Nelson and intercepting a pass to give the Bruins good field position again. Less than four minutes after Nelson's TD, Terry Morehead turned the corner on the right side and ran 12 yards for UCLA's fourth touchdown in less than seven minutes. Johnson closed out UCLA's scoring by kicking a 29-yard field goal as the gun sounded to end the first half. California got on the scoreboard midway through the third period when J Torchio passed seven yards to Mark Funderburk.

October 31: UCLA 28, OREGON 11
AT AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE, OREGON

Week No. 2 of the Second Season saw the Bruins hit the road for the sixth time in eight weeks, this time without their starting backfield. Kevin Nelson was on the sidelines with a sore ankle and Frank Bruno was home recovering from arthroscopic knee surgery. Still, the Bruins had enough weapons to capture a 28-11 decision, despite being outgained, 266-240. The Ducks scored first (8:29 into the game) and last (11 seconds remaining in the contest) but the Bruins did all the scoring in between. Trailing 3-0 in the second quarter, UCLA went to work. Freshman tailback Danny Andrews, seeing his first extensive action of the year, scored from one yard out and less than four minutes later tallied from the two to give his team a 14-3 halftime lead. Neither team scored in the third period and with 6:27 remaining in the contest, the youngster scored his third TD of the afternoon, this time from the one. Bruin career rushing leader Freeman McNeil is the only UCLA player ever to rush for more touchdowns in a single game than Andrews did against the Ducks. Burness Scott, another freshman tailback who rushed for 52 yards on the afternoon, scored the final Bruin touchdown on an 11-yard run. Thirty seconds later, Oregon scored its only TD of the day but it was too little, too late.

November 7: UCLA 31, WASHINGTON 0
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

The Bruins thrust themselves back into the post-season bowl picture by shutting out the Huskies, 31-0. The victory looked even more impressive two weeks later when Washington ended up in the Rose Bowl with a 9-2 regular-season record. Defense was the battlecry as UCLA intercepted two passes and recovered four fumbles enroute to Terry Donahue's fourth win in five meetings with Washington head coach Don James. Though Tom Ramsey's first two passes were intercepted, the Bruins did not give up on their aerial game. Ramsey completed nine passes, two of them touchdowns to Cormac Carney, before leaving with a slight separation of his left shoulder midway through the third quarter. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Bruins got on the board when Ramsey and Carney connected on a nine-yard play which was set up by Karl Morgan's fumble recovery. Less than two minutes before halftime, junior cornerback Walter Lang intercepted a pass at midfield. Six plays later, Cormac The Magnificent made a diving, fingertip grab of Ramsey's pressured pass from the 15 for his second score of the day. On the Huskies' next offensive play, Cookie Jackson was hit by Morgan and fumbled the ball to defensive tackle Martin Moss at the UW 28 — close enough for Norm Johnson to connect from 44 yards with no time remaining in the half. UCLA scored twice more in the final period as long-snapper Russell Rowell recovered a fumbled punt to set up Burness Scott's 10-yard run and freshman outside linebacker Neal Dellocono recovered a poor lateral pass at the one yard line, setting up a touchdown by Steve Bono.

November 14, UCLA 34, ARIZONA STATE 24
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

UCLA kept its record of never having lost to Arizona State intact with an exciting, come-from-behind 34-24 victory. The Sun Devils, national total offense leaders entering the contest, threatened to blow the game open early, taking a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. But the Bruins battled back, getting close on Kevin Nelson's 28-yard TD run and tying the game when Tom Ramsey, who threw for 177 yards on the day, and Jojo Townsell got together for a 57-yard play, UCLA's longest offensive explosion of the year. The Bruins took the lead on a Norm Johnson field goal but ASU tied it with five seconds remaining until halftime. Neither team scored in the third period and the Bruins took the lead for good with 9:35 remaining as Ramsey snuck over from the one yard line. Just over four minutes later, Burness Scott scored for the third straight week to make the score 31-17. ASU wasn't through, however, scoring less than two minutes later on a one-yard run by Gerald Riggs. The Devils then forced the Bruins to punt and with just over two minutes remaining, had a first down on the UCLA 38. But nose guard Karl Morgan batted Mike Pagel's next pass into the air and defensive tackle Joe Gary picked it off and returned the ball to the ASU 36. Four plays later, Johnson connected on a 44-yard field goal and the Bruins had rallied from a 14-point deficit to win their fourth straight game.

November 21: USC 22, UCLA 21
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

The Bruins entered the final game of the regular season knowing they would need some help if they hoped to go to the Rose Bowl. Not only did they have to defeat the USC Trojans, but they had to hope that Washington could defeat Washington State because if the Bruins and the Cougars had finished the year tied for first place, WSU would go to the Rose Bowl on the basis of its better overall record. The only way USC could make it was to defeat the Bruins and hope that Washington and WSU tied. Washington did its part, defeating the Cougars, but USC kept the Bruins from playing on New Year's Day by blocking a 46-yard field goal attempt with no time remaining on the clock. USC sandwiched a pair of Steve Jordan field goals around an 11-yard Kevin Nelson touchdown for a 7-6 deficit early in the second quarter. Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Allen then gave the Trojans the lead with a seven-yard jaunt but the Bruins regained the lead with three minutes left in the half when quarterback Tom Ramsey and reserve split end Ricky Coffman teamed up for a 23-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion. A 32-yard field goal by Norm Johnson with just 49 seconds remaining until halftime gave the Bruins an 18-12 lead at the break. UCLA was the only team to score in the third quarter, taking a 21-12 lead on Johnson's 28-yard field goal midway through the period, but the Bruins were shutout in the final quarter as USC scored 10 points for the victory. The Trojans made it 21-15 just three minutes into the final period on Jordan's third field goal of the game and for a long while it looked like the game might end that way. But with five minutes remaining, Troy West intercepted a Ramsey pass to set the Trojans up at the UCLA 39 yard line. Three Todd Spencer runs and two Allen blasts put the ball at the five and then Allen ran it into the end zone to tie the game. Jordan's extra point gave the Trojans a 22-21 lead with just 2:14 remaining. But the Bruins weren't finished. Ramsey moved them from their own 20 to the USC 29 where, with four seconds remaining on the clock, Johnson came on to attempt the game-winning 46-yard field goal. But USC nose guard George Achica broke through UCLA's front line and batted down the kick and with it, UCLA's hopes of playing in the Rose Bowl.

BLUEBONNET BOWL
December 31: MICHIGAN 33, UCLA 14
AT THE ASTRODOME, HOUSTON, TEXAS

The Michigan Wolverines made life miserable for UCLA on the final day of 1981, holding the Bruins to just 33 yards rushing enroute to a 33-14 victory in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Despite its inability to move the ball, UCLA trailed only 19-14 midway through the final period. Michigan scored two touchdowns in the final five minutes, including one with just eight seconds remaining in the game, for the big final margin. Although the game was, for the most part, close, the final statistics weren't as Michigan outgained UCLA, 488-195, and held the Bruins without a first down until midway through the second quarter. The Wolverines took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a 24-yard field goal by Ali Haji-Sheikh and a 50-yard scoring pass from Steve Smith to All-American Anthony Carter. The score remained the same until the third period when Bruin quarterback Tom Ramsey connected with Jojo Townsell for a 17-yard score to narrow Michigan's lead to 10-7. A Michigan field goal made the score 13-7 entering the final 15 minutes but Butch Woolfolk increased his team's lead to 19-7 less than two minutes into the quarter. With 7:37 remaining in the contest, the Bruins narrowed the gap to 19-14 when Ramsey threw his 16th touchdown pass of the year (a school record), this one covering nine yards to Tim Wrightman. The Bruins couldn't get any closer and the Wolverines scored the last two touchdowns of the contest to make the final score 33-14.

RETIRED NUMBERS

In all of its football history, UCLA has seen fit to retire the uniform numbers of only seven of its greatest players. The latest is free safety Kenny Easley, who wore No. 5 while earning consensus All-America honors three times.

The complete list includes: No. 5, Kenny Easley, safety, 1977-80; No. 13, Kenny Washington, halfback, 1937-39; No. 16, Gary Beban, quarterback, 1965-67; No. 34, Paul Cameron, tailback, 1951-53; No. 38, Burr Baldwin, offensive end, 1941-42 and 1946; No. 80, Donn Moomaw, linebacker, 1950-52; and No. 84, Jerry Robinson, linebacker, 1975-78.

Washington earned fame as UCLA's first All-American player while Beban is the only Bruin every to win the coveted Heisman Trophy. Robinson and Easley are the only three-time All-Americans in UCLA history while Moomaw earned A-A honors twice and Cameron and Baldwin once each.

ALL-AMERICAN BRUINS

Here is UCLA's list of 37 first-team All-Americans, headed by three-time consensus choices Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley. Robinson (1976-77-78), an inside linebacker, and Easley (1978-79-80), a free safety, are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pacific-10 Conference history.

The list also includes 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban and two-time All-Americans Donn Moomaw and Bob Davenport.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME OF UCLA's FOOTBALL BRUINS

Rose Bowl in Pasadena

The Rose Bowl is one of the finest football stadiums in America. It was built specifically for football, but was used for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games. Completed in 1922, the stadium was first used for the USC-California game that year. The stadium was horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game.

The south end was enclosed prior to the 1923 game and enlarged to seat 76,000 spectators. Demands for more and more seats led to further enlargements; to 83,677 in 1932 and to 100,807 in 1949.

All new grandstand and loge seats have been installed since 1971, and new red backs were added on 22,000 seats prior to the 1980 Rose Bowl Game. Current seating capacity is 104,091, though a record 106,869 witnessed the 1973 USC-Ohio State Rose Bowl contest.

A new press box, located on the west rim of the Rose Bowl, was completed prior to the 1962 Rose Bowl Game at a cost of $356,000. It includes an elevator and two enclosed levels for the convenience of the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts to its record. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, the UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nation-wide hookup.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. There is 79,156 square feet of natural grass on the floor of the stadium.

BRUIN OLDTIMER

Senior cornerback Mike Durden is the oldest player on the 1982 UCLA football roster. Mike, who was born in Los Angeles, celebrated his 23rd birthday this past May 4, just two days before split end Cormac Carney also turned 23.

UCLA YOUNGSTER

Freshman offensive guard Eric Rogers is the youngest player on the 1982 UCLA football roster. No baby at 6-5 and 250 pounds, Eric won't be 18 until Nov. 8. Freshman tight end Greg Bolin will accept birthday greetings for his 18th on Oct. 1.

UCLA'S SINGLE-SEASON 'TOP 10' IN TEN INDIVIDUAL CATEGORIES

Here are UCLA's single-season "Top 10" leaders in ten individual categories, including ball-carrying, passing, total offense, pass receiving, punting, scoring, punt returning, kickoff returning, rushing attempts and pass intercepting.

These records are from 1942 through 1981, although a few categories, as noted, go back a few more years. An 'early' (before the time span listed) accomplishment is listed at the end of the specific category. (1982 players in bold face.)

THE LAST TIME . . .

Scoring on a kickoff return, punt return, interception return or safety is rare in college football, as is a shutout. Here is a list of the last time UCLA:

Scored on kickoff return: Jojo Townsell vs California, 1980 (100 yards)

Was scored upon by kickoff return: Joe Steele of Washington, 1976 (89 yards)

Scored on punt return: Brian Smith vs Wisconsin, 1979 (six yards with blocked punt); Ray Armstrong vs Syracuse, 1966 (62 yards with kick return)

Was scored upon by punt return: Mark Lee of Washington, 1979 (62 yards)

Scored on an interception: Kenny Easley vs Oregon State, 1980 (62 yards)

Was scored upon by interception: Matt Elisara of WSU, 1981 (42 yards)

Scored a safety: vs Oregon, 1976

Was scored upon by safety: by Arizona, 1980

Shut out an opponent: vs Washington, 1981

Was shut out by opponent: by Michigan, 1971

DR. CHARLES E. YOUNG

(UC Riverside '55)
UCLA Chancellor

When Dr. Charles E. Young became chancellor of UCLA in 1968, he was 36, the youngest man to head one of the University of California's nine campuses.

Today, at 50, he has been in office longer than any other UC chancellor except one and has compiled a record of solid achievement in the post.

An energetic administrator, he has guided UCLA successfully through difficult periods of student unrest and reduced budgets, providing vigorous leadership in the effort to add to the university's academic distinction through endowed chairs and other outside financial support.

Chancellor Young attended high school and junior college in his native San Bernardino before serving in the U.S. Air Force in the Korean War. Returning from Japan as a sergeant he reentered civilian life and married his childhood sweetheart Sue Daugherty. He and Mrs. Young are the parents of two grown children, Charles, Jr., and Elizabeth Susan Schlossmann. To complete his college education, Dr. Young enrolled in the newly-opened U.C. Riverside and became its first student body president in 1955.

For his graduate work he moved to UCLA, where he earned the M.A. (1957) and the Ph.D. (1960), both in political science.

After a year in Washington D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship, he returned to California in 1959 to join the staff of UC President Clark Kerr.

For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California and worked on the University Growth Plan. He also taught political science on the Davis campus of the University in the spring of 1960.

When Dr. Franklin D. Murphy became UCLA chancellor in 1960, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1963 Dr. Young was appointed a vice chancellor, with responsibilities for administrative, budgetary and student problems.

Five years later, in 1968, Dr. Murphy resigned to become chief executive officer of the Times-Mirror Company, and the Regents turned to Dr. Young to lead the campus which he had served with energy and perception.

Chancellor Young's interest in top performance extends beyond purely academic concerns to other fields, including athletics, and he has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

In addition to his membership on the boards of numerous academic organizations, he has been active in the concerns of the NCAA and is a member of the board of directors of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee.

ROBERT A. FISCHER

(UCLA '45)
Director of Athletics

It hasn't taken Robert A. (Bob) Fischer very long to establish himself as one of the most successful athletic directors in the nation. His leadership has kept UCLA at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics.

Last year, UCLA won three NCAA men's team championships and placed among the nation's top six schools in five other sports, giving UCLA an incredible total of eight top-six finishes. In 1980-81, Fischer's first as AD, the Bruins won one title and placed fifth or better in five other sports.

In 1981-82, UCLA increased its championship total to 42 by winning titles in swimming, volleyball and tennis. In addition, the Bruins also finished second in gymnastics, fifth in track and field and cross country and sixth in golf and water polo. The Bruin football squad also participated in a post-season bowl for the fourth time in seven years and the basketball team won at least 20 games for the 16th consecutive season.

Away from the playing field, Fischer oversees the entire operation of UCLA's powerful athletic program and works with his associate and assistant directors to insure the high-quality program Bruin fans expect. In addition, he interacts with other members of the campus community on important affairs, such as the soon-to-be-completed John R. Wooden Sports and Recreation Center and the MAC-B (athletic department headquarters) renovation project. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the UCLA Foundation.

Fischer, a native of San Francisco, was appointed to his current position in early May of 1980, effective July 1. He succeeded his longtime friend, the late J.D. Morgan, who retired from the position on October 29, 1979 due to health reasons. At the time, Fischer was named acting athletic director.

The University's choice to take over the reins of the department after a nationwide search, Fischer spent 16 years as Morgan's number one assistant. He joined the Bruin athletic department in September, 1964, as assistant director, became associate director in August, 1978, and was appointed acting director in October of 1980.

A member of the National Athletic Collegiate Directors Association, Fischer represents UCLA at all NACDA conventions, as well as at NCAA conventions and Pacific-10 Conference meetings.

Among his many duties during his tenure as Morgan's top assistant were the overseeing of the operations of the UCLA Promotions and Athletic Ticket Offices, as well as being involved with football and basketball scheduling and serving as department liaison with the Sportsmen of the South, one of UCLA's fine support groups.

A graduate of UCLA, Fischer attended Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco. While serving in the U.S. Navy, Fischer came to UCLA in 1943 to participate in the V-12 program. In 1945, he earned a B.S. in Business Management, Finance, Marketing and Accounting. While at UCLA, he was very involved in student affairs. He was a member of ASUCLA Board of Control, a representative-at-large on the Student Executive Council, chairman of the Cal Club and All-U-Sing, and a member of numerous committees, including Homecoming and Stadium Executive.

Prior to graduating from UCLA, Fischer attended Naval Officer Supply School at Harvard University.

He then returned to UCLA, taking a job in the Business Office, where he served from July, 1946, through September, 1951. For the next five years, he was involved in University affairs while off campus. In September, 1956, Fischer was named executive manager of the Sportsmen of the South. He held that position until September, 1964, when he joined the athletic department as Morgan's assistant.

Fischer, a member of the original Pavilion committee which led to the construction of Pauley Pavilion, is married to the former Liliane Jenkins, also a UCLA graduate. They have four children, all college graduates: Larry, 35; Diane, 33; Michele, 30; and Denise, 27. Larry, Michele and Denise all graduated from UCLA and Diane is a graduate of Cal State University, Northridge.

DR. DOUGLAS S. HOBBS

(Harvard '55)
Faculty Athletic Representative

During his first six years as UCLA's faculty athletic representative, Prof. Douglas S. Hobbs has handled a number of major assignments with success. In 1980-81 he served as chairman of the Pacific-10 Conference Compliance Committee and was a member of UCLA's Athletic Director Search Committee.

In 1978-79 he served on the NCAA Division I Steering Committee, which initiates policy recommendations for action by the association's annual convention, and in 1977-78 Hobbs was president of the Pacific-8 Council.

Working with faculty representatives of the other member schools, he helps to shape matters of athletic policy and to approve legislative action of the Pacific-10 Conference as well as to help determine the eligibility of student athletes.

His duties also include membership on the UCLA Athletic and Recreational Policies Commission, and he also serves as the faculty athletic representative for UCLA's outstanding women's intercollegiate program.

An associate professor of political science with a specialty in American Constitutional law, Dr. Hobbs enjoys his work in athletics and is a longtime spectator at UCLA athletic events. He says, "Since joining the UCLA faculty in 1964, I've missed only one home football game." On that occasion, Gary Beban broke his leg during the struggle with Stanford, and Dr. Hobbs is resolved not to court such disasters by his absence. He also rarely misses a basketball game in Pauley Pavilion.

He competed in track and basketball at Great Neck, N.Y., High School and also, as he puts it, "Played without distinction on Harvard's freshman basketball team."

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Dr. Hobbs was educated at Harvard University, receiving his A.B., magna cum laude, in 1955 and his Ph.D. in 1966. He was a Robert Treat Paine Fellow there in 1958-59, a Graduate Fellow in 1959-60 and a Teaching Fellow in Government in 1959-62 and 1963-64. He has taught at UCLA since 1964.

He has won three teaching honors at UCLA, the 1968 and 1975 Pi-Sigma Alpha Awards for Distinguished Teaching in Political Science, and the UCLA Alumni Association's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1969.

Professor Hobbs served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1955-58 and in 1962-63. He served as a Navigator on board a destroyer and later as Communications Officer and staff secretary on the staff of Destroyer Squadron Eight. He left the Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander in 1965.

Dr. Hobbs is married to the former Jane Field, and they live in Brentwood, a residential area a few miles from the Westwood campus.

HISTORY OF UCLA

UCLA occupies an unusual position among the nation's large universities; it is one of a tiny handful known both for top academic leadership and championship athletics.

Two historic decisions played a critical part in UCLA's growth to its present distinction. The first was the vote of the state legislature in 1919 to allow the Los Angeles State Normal School to become part of the University of California; the second was the decision to move UCLA's campus in 1929 from a small plot on Vermont Avenue to the new home in Westwood Village.

Affiliation with the University of California gave the fledgling university the academic prestige it needed to attract outstanding faculty and students; the move to Westwood gave it a handsome setting and room for expansion into a major institution. The fact that the campus lay in the path of growth of the nation's most vigorous metropolis undoubtedly made an important contribution.

From a provincial undergraduate institution in the '20s, UCLA has developed into a major research university with the eighth largest graduate enrollment among U.S. state universities.

UCLA's various professional schools, though relatively young, have also reached national prominence. One 1977 survey found the UCLA Law School in 10th position, Graduate Education in 4th, and Management in 8th; another, in 1979, listed UCLA Medicine in 5th place in the U.S.

UCLA's faculty rolls, which have listed Nobelists and numerous members of the National Academy of Sciences, contain many nationally-known authorities. UCLA faculty are always represented, often in considerable numbers, among the winners of Guggenheim awards and Fulbright and Sloan fellowships.

In support of faculty and student research, UCLA has developed many unusual educational facilities, including a library of some 4,500,000 volumes recently ranked 4th in the nation by the Association of Research Libraries. Another important research tool is the new IBM 3033 computer, one of the most advanced in U.S. universities, which processes 700,000 jobs each year.

In science, the university has such special facilities as a linear accelerator, a laboratory for research into nuclear fusion which may some day provide unlimited sources of energy, a carbon-dating laboratory which determines the age of ancient objects, and a tissue-typing laboratory which matches donors and recipients of organ transplants all over the world.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the extensive ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the more than 400 exotic musical instruments of the department of music. Still other unusual collections embrace the more than 60 major examples of contemporary sculpture in the Franklin Murphy Sculpture Garden and the more than 25,000 prints in the Grunwald Center for the Graphic Arts.

It is perhaps not surprising that UCLA's strong faculty and excellent facilities have attracted a large volume of research grants, not only from private sources but from the government. In federal grants for research and development, UCLA ranked 6th in the nation in 1980.

It is also not surprising that with such a wealth of educational opportunity, UCLA's students should have played a prominent role in supplying California's need for sophisticated manpower, thus providing an increasingly influential group of UCLA alumni in the state and nation.
